

WILSON NOTE TO KAISER DELAYED; REASON NOT TOLD

Communication Not Cabled, Though it is Known President Virtually Had Completed It.

MYSTERY IN POSTPONEMENT

Belief Exists in Some Quarters Inaction Due to Desire to Give Germany Time.

OFFICIALS DENY THIS IS SO

WASHINGTON, June 6.—The note which President Wilson, with the approval of his cabinet, had prepared to be sent to Germany insisting on an adherence to the rules of international law in the conduct of maritime warfare, was not cabled yesterday. Word came from the White House in the forenoon that it had been virtually finished, but the document was not given to the legal officers of the State department today as had been expected.

The reason for the delay in the dispatch of the note was not revealed. President Wilson played golf during the morning and went motoring after lunch with members of his family, returning to the White House after sundown. Secretary Bryan went driving in the afternoon. Counselor Robert Lansing went to the base ball game.

Officials declined to say when the note would be cabled or what its status was. The fact that the president practically finished it led to the belief that Secretary Bryan would study it tonight and tomorrow and that it would be given to Counselor Lansing and other officials of the State department Monday for revision of legal details.

A large communication is not sent before Monday night it would hardly reach Ambassador Gerard before Wednesday presentation to the German foreign office, as about forty-eight hours is allowed by officials now for transmission of messages via London and Copenhagen to Berlin.

APPLAUSE GREET'S BISHOP BRISTOL

Sermon Interrupted Several Times by Applause—His Health is Now Restored.

TALKS AT FIRST METHODIST

Bishop Frank M. Bristol preached a strong home mission sermon at the First Methodist church Sunday morning to a congregation much larger than usual. His presence in the pulpit, after a long and very serious illness, from which he seems to have entirely recovered, called forth numerous beautiful floral gifts, and a vigorous outburst of welcoming applause greeted the bishop when he was introduced by the pastor, Rev. Titus Lowe.

During the sermon the normal dignity and quiet of the church was broken several times by applause or laughter, the demonstrative response testifying to the bishop's restored vigor of presence and delivery, and to his well known ability as an orator and humorist as well as a preacher.

A large thank offering toward the Woman's Home Missionary society was collected at the close of the service. The beautiful flowers placed around the pulpit in honor of the bishop were sent to sick people.

Tells of Poor Widow. Preliminary to his sermon the distinguished divine told the scriptural story of the widow's mite, and the story about the woman who anointed Jesus with the costly contents of an alabaster box. His theme was based on Christ's remark, "She hath done what she could."

TO PROBE SCANDAL AT NAVAL ACADEMY

Daniels Appoints Court of Inquiry to Investigate Charges Against Seven Middies.

WILSON APPROVES DISMISSALS

WASHINGTON, June 6.—Following a conference with President Wilson yesterday, Secretary Daniels appointed a court of inquiry to investigate charges that seven midshipmen at the Annapolis Naval academy had secured advance information on examinations.

The court will make a sweeping inquiry, however, into reports that other midshipmen and possibly some instructors were involved in the irregularities. No attempt was made at the Navy department tonight to minimize the gravity of the situation.

Practice Cruise Postponed. The annual practice cruise of the midshipmen, which was to have begun next week, has been indefinitely postponed in order that students at the academy may testify before the court of inquiry, which will be convened at Annapolis next Monday.

Members of Court. The court which will investigate the situation is composed of Captain R. L. Russell, former judge advocate general of the navy; Captain A. T. Long, Commander L. R. de Steiguer and Lieutenant Commander W. C. Watt, who will act as judge advocate.

The seven midshipmen whose cases will furnish the basis for the investigation have already been recommended for dismissal by the academy board, but Secretary Daniels, following a personal investigation of the situation at the academy this week, decided that it was best to go thoroughly into all charges involving others.

GREAT BATTLE STAGED AROUND GRODEK LAKES

Indications of General Combat Between Russian and Teutonic Allies South of Lemberg.

VIENNA SAYS SLAVS FLEEING

British Are Hopeful that Things Looking Up a Little in Gallipoli.

OPERATIONS THERE ARE SLOW

The Day's War News

THE AMERICAN NOTE, to be sent to Berlin in reply to the German note on the American demands, has been completed, but is not yet in the hands of the legal officers of the State department. As a consequence the note will not be forwarded to Germany as early as a date as was expected.

IN FRANCE the Germans admit the loss to the French of the sugar refinery at Souchez, but declare that an attack by the enemy at Neuville has been repulsed. Along the other fronts in the west little of importance has occurred.

IN THE ITALIAN War theater the Vienna War office declares that nothing of importance has occurred, but from Chisasso, Switzerland, come reports that the invading Italians are making slow progress in the southern Tyrol, where, it is stated, the Austrian military authorities have decided to remove the civil population.

A DISPATCH FROM VIENNA says that it is now virtually certain that a coalition government is to be formed in Hungary.

SUBMARINE ACTIVITY by the Germans continues, according to a dispatch from Kirkwall, Orkney Islands, which states that three more British vessels have been sunk.

HEAVY FIGHTING is still in progress in Galicia, where the Austro-Germans are attempting an encircling movement against Lemberg, such as proved successful at Przemysl.

LONDON, June 6.—A further advance of the Teutonic allies toward Moscow, with indications of a great battle near the Grodek lakes, are contained in reports from the Galician front. The Austro-German military authorities, according to these reports, anticipate serious opposition in the Grodek lakes region on the part of the Russians, reinforced by a large number of reserves.

With this event forecast in the southeastern war theater, both the Russians and the Austro-Germans continue fighting along the entire front in Galicia. Reports from Vienna declare that the Russians are in full retreat, although the advance of the enemy has been arrested ten miles west of Przemysl.

Fighting on Gallipoli. A dispatch from Mitylene that a combined general offensive against the Turkish positions began yesterday, and Winston Spencer Churchill's statement at Dundee that the allied forces are within a few miles of victory is taken as indication that things are moving a little more quickly on the Gallipoli peninsula, where the Anglo-French troops are fighting for positions which will give them command of the Dardanelles.

These operations have been necessarily slow. After landing, the first allied (Continued on Page Two, Column Two.)
